

TWO BHS ART STUDENTS WIN TOP AWARDS
At NJCU HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT ART EXHIBIT

New Jersey City University held its Second Annual High School Student Art Exhibit at the Gallery of the NJCU Visual Arts Building from December 17, 2008 – January 17, 2009.

Kimberly Sital, a Photography student of Mr. Thomas Hart was awarded the NJCU Photography Award for her digital photograph titled “Jillian at Play”. Kester Payumo, a Crafts and Design student of Mrs. June Mohovich received the NJCU Craft Award for his basket made of jute.

Seventeen Bayonne High School art students had artworks accepted for the exhibit. They are: Elizabeth Baldwin, Patricia Bossert, Melissa Bowman, Ashley Cartagena, Brianna Casas, Chloe DeFilippis, Christian Escobar, Stephanie Ghizzone, Courtney Hyman, Anthony Linardi, Lillian Makar, Kester Payumo, Anthony Quedding, Sami Saad, Kimberly Sital, Marcin Skibniewski, and John Somoza.

The winning students were presented with certificates and cash awards at the reception and awards ceremony at the NJCU Gallery on Wednesday, December 17, 2008.